THE TORTOLA DISASTER.

The Story Discredited in England and in Havana.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The Colonial Office has no advice of the Tortola disaster, and hence the story is discredited.

HAVANA, Nov. 18.—Neither the British Consul nor any other party here has received any particulars of the alleged sinking of the Island of Tortola and drowning of ten thousand inhabitants.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—We learn that a private letter from Tortola, written 1st inst., has been received in this city, making brief reference to the hurricane which swept over the island on the 29th of October, but it makes no mention of any general loss of life.

A Statue of Edward Everett Unveiled in Boston. BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The statue of Edward Everett, by Story, was unveiled in the public garden this morning.

Marine Disasters. BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The schooner Bonny Boat of Dennis, from Gloucester for Philadelphia, put into Newport on Saturday, with loss of cargo.

From Worcester, Mass. WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 18.—Shepherd, the wife murderer, was captured in Canterbury, Conn., this morning.

Ship News. FATHER POINT, Nov. 18.—The Nova Scotia passed here to-day for Quebec.

The Next Presidency. The several candidates for the next Presidency brought forward by the Republican press seem since the late Northern elections, to be reduced pretty much to a single one, viz., Grant.

General Sickles and General Scott Mustered out of the Army. General Grant has issued a special order honorably mustering out of the service Major-General Sickles and Brigadier-General Scott.

SNEAK THIEVES ARRESTED.—Three colored men were arrested this morning for robbing Einstein & Donaghy's dry goods store, in South street, above Sixth, of a lot of flannel and a number of shawls.

The death was recently announced, in the parish of St. Martin, Colchester, England, of Mrs. Ann Rumsey, widow, in her 104th year.
